PLEASE DO NOT BOOK WITH PROVIDERS DIRECTLY

NB: To access YTT funding all akonga must be enrolled as Full time/ or Young Adults, enrolled in at least 3 subjects and engaged in Te Kura subjects (not on the Non Returners, though there are exceptions please discuss with me)

Email me your Student ID, Name, the Course description as well as the External Provider. Please also include the specific course dates if specified or ask for next available course. Or if you have a query.

Natalie.jones@tekura.school.nz

As a rule with Public Courses, last day for bookings is 7 working days out from start date as per MOU agreements. 3 weeks out from start is an ideal so providers can make a definite call to run the course or not.

To search this Catalogue click Control+ F (find) to create a search bar. Use key words, month, dates, course names and it will highlighted in Catalogue.

GROUP BOOKINGS are offered by many providers, typically however they have differing min numbers (11-20 akonga approx) to run. I will run several te Kura Group Courses they year that I will advertise on My Te Kura- My Korowai and in the STAR catalogues.

Communication and Teamwork

Grab those phones and start posting because Let's Learn is needing creative marketing that communicates their business to younger audiences. TikTok... the teams' re-branding proposals aren't going to make themselves. Teams of ākonga have been "hired" by Let's Learn to create a re-branding proposal that advertises their business to teenage target markets. Along the way, ākonga will learn about crucial communication, teamwork, and active listening skills.

Day One:

Listen up! Because today ākonga will be learning and demonstrating their best active listening skills. Want to know more? No worries: questioning is great evidence of listening. Ākonga will also learn about common communication barriers they may face in their lives, and practical solutions for overcoming these. They will then utilise these new skills in teams, by working together to draft a marketing proposal that clearly engages and communicates messages to teenage target markets.

Day Two:

Hit like and subscribe as today ākonga are making and presenting their team's final marketing ideas. Prepare to see some sharable TikTok's, logos, posts, and slogans. "Two words... sounds like..." Today ākonga will also learn the significance of non-verbal communication and reflect on how communication situations they have experienced could have been more effective and efficient.

Group Leadership

Follow the leaders! After understanding how different leadership styles and skills can be adapted to safely engage and motivate others, ākongā will work in teams to plan and lead interactive activity sessions that meet the specific needs of teenage target groups.

Day One: Today teamwork will be making the dream work, as ākongā cooperate in groups to plan safe, interactive activities that they will then lead tomorrow. Ākongā will understand their own natural leadership styles and the pros and cons of using other styles. From setting clear boundaries to providing guidance and motivation, ākongā will also consider how to adapt leadership skills to help overcome potential group participation barriers.

Day Two: Leading into day two, ākongā will be preparing and preventing instead of repairing and repenting by identifying and controlling any potential hazards associated with their team activities. Then, step aside teachers, as your future leaders are coming through! Groups of ākongā will take turns leading fun activity sessions, using the safety and leadership skills they acquired yesterday.
